ONLY A DAY'S MARCH
FROM THE COVETED
CITY IN NEAR EAST

Allied Generals Meet With Ismet Pasha in Renewed Efforts to Untangle Problems Today; In Spite of Ismet's Promise, Troops are Concentrating

In the Chanak Area Infantry is Replacing Cavalry, Which is Taken to Mean that the Turks Intend to Dig Into and Hold Their Positions

By United Press

Mudania, Oct. 9.—Kemalist legions were within a day's march of Constantinople as allied generals met with Ismet Pasha in renewed efforts to untangle the Near East problem today.

In spite of the promise of Ismet, Turkish nationalist representative, to cease the concentration of troops in the neutral areas, the Kemalists surged into the forbidden area.

Turkish cavalry has reached Shile and Yarmise, both places within the neutral zone near the Bosphorus at the right of the Sea of Marmora.

Yarmise is within a day's march of Constantinople.

The cavalry is also nearing Karayakobi, which is in the same area.

The concentration in the neutral zone on the west of the Sea of Marmora in the vicinity of Chanak is also continuing. In this area infantry has replaced cavalry, which is taken to mean that the Turks intend to dig into and hold their positions.

The latest allied plan of peace, which includes the immediate withdrawal of the Greeks from Thrace and the occupation of that territory by the allies for a period of one month after which a Turkish civil administration will be set up, was presented to Ismet by the military representatives of Great Britain, France and Italy.

The situation was somewhat relieved when the Greek cabinet instructed the Greek representatives to inform the allies that the government would order its nationalists out of Thrace. The Greeks, however, ask for two months instead of one to evacuate.

Lloyd George Government May Be Overthrown

London, Oct. 9.—Possibility of the overthrow of the Lloyd George government next month when the parliament convenes, was announced today by opponents of the prime minister. Liberal and conservative anti-Georgians saw an advantage in the recent attacks on the premier because of his Near East policies. The attack in the press is lead by J. D. Garvin, writer for the "Observer," whose opinion carries great weight as a critic of the government.

The "Observer" and many other papers, some of them that have long been friendly to Lloyd George, are clamoring for a change in government, following the militant attitude the cabinet has taken in dealing with the Kemalists in the Near East.

Turkish Forces Withdraw From Ismid
Constantinople, Oct. 9.—Turkish forces today withdrew from Ismid, the neutral zone, it was announced.

Ferry Traffic Stopped

Paris, Oct. 9.—Ferry traffic across the straits of the Bosphorus to Constantinople was stopped by the British today when the Kemalists took up positions within a days march of the city, according to word received here from Constantinople.

Twenty "U" Judging Teams Represented

A PUNCH IN THE PINCH IS WHAT ENABLED GIANTS TO COP PENNANT

By HENRY L. FARRELL,
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
New York, Oct. 9.—The New York Giants are the champions of the world for the second successive time.

Beaten as only two teams have been beaten in a previous world series, the New York Yanks have only one title—American League Champions—and that by a shade of one game.

Back in 1907 the Detroit Tigers lost to the Chicago Cubs without winning a game; in 1914 the Philadelphia Athletics dropped four straight games to the Boston Braves and this year the best the Yanks could get from the Giants was one tie game.

The same punch in the pinch that had brought them from behind in other games, enabled the Giants to take the last game Sunday five to three after it seemed certain that the Yanks had broken the spell that hung around them.

Bush Becomes Angry

The final downfall of the Yankees was that of a house momentarily divided. Miller Huggins, the head of the household which was then enjoying a 3-to-2 lead, over the Giants, differed with the pitcher, Joe Bush, in his strategic program for blocking the onslaught of the champions in the eighth inning. Bush became angry and before he could calm himself, Long George Kelly had smacked one of his curves so hard and so far that one Giant raced across the plate with the run that tied the score and another Giant trotted in with the score that beat him.

The Yanks enjoyed the prospect of a victory for only 15 minutes. When they came to bat in the seventh, the score was deadlocked, two-all. They made a run on Meusel's scratch hit, Schang's sacrifice bunt, a wild pitch by Art Nehf, the Giants' southpaw, and a short sacrifice fly to center field from the bat of Everett Scott. The throw home of this fly almost caught Meusel as he slid for home. It seemed the Yanks barely had squeezed out a victory.

Beginning of End

And then in the eighth the courageous Giants fung out their challenge. Pipp, the Yank first baseman, halted them for a moment by stopping Bancroft's hard blow back of first base and leaping to the bag in time to beat the runner, but the fighting Giants would not be denied a victory. Groh cut the diamond with a single that ripped along the turf into center field. Frisch hit a liner that bounded to McMillan in center field, who juggled it, and the batter was credited with a two-bagger, while Groh went to third. Irish Meusel shot a roller to short, Scott hurling the ball home so fast that Groh could not safely reach the plate. He started to return to third but was run down by Schang.

When the ball was thrown back to the box Bush found himself in trouble. Frisch, the fastest runner on either team, stood perched on third base and Irish Meusel on second. At the plate, swinging his bat left-handed, stood Pep Young, who usually drops his hits in right field.

Huggins' Idea

At this moment there popped into the mind of Miller Huggins the thought that the best way out of the difficulty would be to let Young walk to first, filling the bases, so that a force out would be facilitated. He was willing to take a chance that Kelly, who had been weak in his recent batting, would continue to be weak. So he ordered Bush to walk Young. Later both Giant and Yankee players said it was a splendid example of real inside baseball strategy. The break of the game ruined it nevertheless.

The sudden command plainly displeased Bush. He wanted to work things out in his own way. He warmed up his tongue with a couple of hot words and then shouted to Huggins, "let's play ball." Huggins was insistent and repeated his signal to pass Young. Bush obeyed. His face showed his disgust at each of the four wide throws he hurled.

And then Kelly, who bats right-handed, appeared at the plate. Bush's first pitch to him was a ball. The next was a speedy curve. It cracked off Kelly's bat and into centerfield at a fast clip, scoring Frisch and Meusel. Huggins had guessed wrong. Bush perhaps had won a moral victory. (Continued on page 2)

ENTRENCHED BEHIND

AND U. S. TO ENCROACH
ON HIS FARMCRUCIAL MOMENT COMES TUES-DAY, FACED BY HIGHWAY
DEPARTMENT

(By United Press.)
St. Paul, Oct. 9.—Entrenched behind a barricade of stones and rocks, with a shot gun across his knees, Michael Whalen today dared the state, the United States or the universe to encroach on his land. Whalen's farm happens to be in the way of a road building project, but with the determination of John Dietz, he is prepared to fight another battle of Cameron Dam if necessary.

Tomorrow morning the crucial moment will arrive. A crew of the state highway department will make the first advance, endeavoring to continue highway construction toward Rosemount under the protection of court order to straighten out the highway and eliminate several railroad crossings, and about six and four-tenths acres of Whalen's land is needed for the project. Whether the court order of condemnation is sufficient protection against the threats and remarks of Whalen today was a matter of conjecture. Whalen is there with a shot gun. The highway crews are there with their graders, picks and shovels.

DIVERSIFIED FARMING AND HIGH PRODUCING DAIRY COW ARE MONEY MAKERS

(By United Press.)
St. Paul, Oct. 9.—Students judging teams of 20 state universities were competing at the dairy show today in cattle judging contests. Each U. had a three man team.

"The Dairy Exposition of 1922 will be a land mark in American agriculture," former Governor Frank Lowden of Illinois, a Sunday guest, declared. He analyzed the progress that has been made through various agencies in the dairy industry.

"The gradual tendency toward another period of inflation," Lowden said, "will be disastrous unless there is a reconciliation of farm prices because at the root of all business and economic welfare, is the diversified farming with the high producing dairy cow the important factor."

Tomorrow will be Dakota day, and there will be delegations from North and South Dakota.

(By United Press.)
London, Oct. 9.—Atlantic shippers resentful of what they term attempted American dictatorship regarding the carrying of liquor on the high seas, met today to discuss the advisability of forcing a show down on the Daugherty order by entering New York harbor with booze stores sealed. Officials of the White Star line and the Cunard line were among those who met to consider the situation of Attorney General Daugherty brought about following the order that ships may not enter American ports with stores of liquor on board.

Seven Ships to Make Trial Case

London, Oct. 9.—Seven ships of the Cunard and White Star lines are to sail for America this week fully stocked with liquor to test the Daugherty order prohibiting ships from entering American ports with booze on board. This announcement was made following a conference of shippers who met to decide what course to pursue. The name of the ships to be used in the test were not made known.

(By United Press.)
Washington, Oct. 9.—As the first step in the program of refunding of government obligations maturing within a few months, the treasury department today is preparing to float a bond issue of $500,000,000 in 4 1/4 per cent securities.

The issuance of these bonds was announced by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, who in a letter to bankers commenting on the new issue said it was a refunding issue which will afford a "particularly favorable opportunity to holders of 4 1/4 Victory notes to acquire a long time government bond on attractive terms in place of victory notes which will mature or be redeemed within the next few months."

The new bonds will bear date of October 16th, and will mature in 1952, the government reserving the privilege to redeem them in 1947 when the last of the war issuances mature.

MAN ACQUITTED IN MURDER 11 YEARS
AGO REARRESTEDNEW DEVELOPMENTS IN SCHILL
DOUBLE SLAYING
OF 1911

Minneapolis, Oct. 9.—Eleven years' work to solve the mysterious double murder of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Schill bear Red Wing, a crime which shocked southern Minnesota in 1911 and led to one of the most spectacular trials in the state's history, culminated last night in the arrest of Eugene Artz, 42, at Milwaukee.

Mrs. Anton Schill was found in the basement of her farm home two miles from Red Wing, her body riddled with bullets. Police worked on the theory that her husband had murdered her, but a few days later found Schill's body likewise riddled with shot, in a hay-pile in the stable.

Artz lived on a neighboring farm. He was arrested, charged with the Schill's murder and tried jointly with John Boerfler, his brother-in-law. Boerfler made a statement implicating Artz, gave robbery as the motive, and was convicted, while Artz was acquitted. Boerfler, now serving a life sentence at Stillwater, recently made a new statement and authorities last night reported that new corroborative evidence warranted Artz' arrest.

Artz was traced to Badger's Corners, near Milwaukee. He denied implication in the murder but will return to Minnesota to stand trial for the slaying of Mrs. Schill.

MILL CITY

(By United Press.)
Minneapolis, Oct. 9.—Six men and two women were arrested in three cities Sunday night, and were alleged by police to be members of a gang wanted for three bank robberies, a murder, and a number of lesser crimes.

Jack Carroll, Minneapolis, Ray McConnell, alias MacParsons, and Ray J. Reider were arrested in Grand Forks. Edwin Carlson was arrested in Crookston. George W. Mills, Arthur Day and Mrs. Jack Carroll and Elizabeth Coffee were arrested in Minneapolis.

Frank Brunskill, chief of detectives, said one or more of those arrested was involved in the holdup of the St. Anthony bank. Members of the gang also were wanted for the attempted robbery of the Calhoun state bank, and the robbery of the Penn Avenue State bank, Minneapolis.

Parsons has been sought for months in connection with the shooting of Laurence Cohagen, St. Paul road flagman.

The three men arrested in Grand Forks had been arrested in Fargo and escaped. The arrests Sunday were brought about by the sending of a telegram to Mrs. Carroll in Minneapolis from Carlson in Crookston.

200 MEN CHARGED WITH MURDER, ETC.

Wellsburg, W. Va., Oct. 9.—Trial of 200 men charged with the murder and inciting to riot in Cliftonville, July 17, when Sheriff H. H. Duvall and seven union miners were slain, began in Brooke county circuit court today.

Seventy-eight men are held without bond for first degree murder. The indictments resulted from a riot when a small force of deputies headed by Sheriff Duvall were attacked by hundreds of miners who were said to have marched down from a Pennsylvania mining camp. The attacking party set fire to mine property, shot Duvall and killed seven other men.

Shopmen's Side of Controversy As Given by Publicity Committee

Efficient Workmen are Needed

These are illustrations of what is happening all over the country. It is not sabotage, as Attorney General Daugherty asserts and Judge Wilkerson okays, but a want of efficient workmen in the shops to deliver the goods. It likewise explains why stockholders and bondholders are demanding that boards of directors get busy and tell their hired executives to deal with the shopmen before the sheriff and the receiver step to the front and sell the roads as junk.

Reports reach strike headquarters here of the last desperate spasm of the "hard-boiled" managers to induce striking workmen to return. They are sending emissaries to homes of the strikers with the story that "the men have been sold out by their leaders." This is on a par with the story printed in a Chicago daily paper that President Jewell journeyed to Baltimore in Daniel Willard's private car on the Baltimore & Ohio, "traveling incognito de lux like a potentate."

These management emissaries are also offering the men a $100 bonus to return and guarantee of a lifetime job "at higher wages than awarded by the Railroad Labor Board." It is said to the credit of the union shopmen that none are being influenced by this brand of sophistry.

Then there are the "company unions" being formed on paper in the hope of scaring the men back to their old jobs at terms dictated by the managers. Of course, no free man will join a company union, and 90 per cent of the railroad workers are American citizens who believe the Constitution of their fathers means what it says. So the "company unions" are doomed to quick death.

Federal Judge F. A. Geiger, of Milwaukee, recently issued the usual injunctions against the striking shopmen. Last week he dismissed it, declaring he had become convinced the managers had not used it to protect their property but as a club over the heads of the strikers in an endeavor to coerce them to forsake their organizations, their fellow workers, and return to the shops as bondmen. All troops on duty in Illinois guarding railroad shops have been withdrawn by order of Governor Small. He said they were not needed besides a heavy expense was being incurred which the public had to pay. One of the roads which asked for troops and finally went into the hands of a receiver was the Chicago & Alton. Now it is "dickering" for a settlement and is willing to comply with all the terms of the Baltimore agreement except reinstatement of 30 men. "We all go back or none," reply the strikers and they will in a few days.

BRIBE IS OFFERED STRIKING SHOPMEN TO ABANDON UNION

Norfolk & Western Promises $100 for Each Striker Induced to Return To Work

One hundred dollars for each and every shop striker induced to desert his union and return to work is the bribe offered to striking foremen of the Norfolk & Western Railroad, according to information reaching the headquarters of the International Association of Machinists. Endeavoring to effect a settlement with the strikers on an individual basis, the management of the Norfolk & Western has offered to its striking workers the status they enjoyed on June 30, including pass and pension privileges and their old rating. To foremen are offered the positions they formerly occupied, with all rights intact, if they return to the shops at once. For every striker they take with them they are to receive $100.

H. L. Bronson, assistant to President W. H. Johnston, of the Machinists, declares that this is a final effort on the part of railroad managers to break the shop unions.

Men Sticking to Unions

"The managers expected," said Mr. Bronson, "that when the Chicago court granted Attorney General Daugherty's injunction the strikers would break down shop gates in their eagerness to get back to their jobs. They were disappointed, for the men are not returning except where settlements have been made with system federations pursuant to the terms of the Baltimore agreement."

"We have information that the Norfolk & Western is attempting to bribe foremen to betray their unions and their fellow-workers with substantial financial inducements. Big as the temptation is to get $100 for each union man persuaded to act as strikebreaker, I do not believe that the plan will be successful. The men have endured much for their principles and they will construe this insult to their honesty and integrity as a confession of desperation upon the part of management."

Other Roads Try Scheme

"We have positive evidence of what the Norfolk & Western is trying to do, and we have reason for believing that the same scheme is being quietly adopted by other railroads which are holding out against settlement with the system federations. "No finer testimony of the devotion and loyalty of the strikers can be given than this resort to actual bribery by the managements. There is no more cause for believing it will be successful than have the coercive measures previously employed without in any degree affecting the determination of the men to see the struggle through to a finish."

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE,
Federated Shop Crafts

Northern Pacific Railway Company
Side of the Controversy

Brainerd, Minn., Oct. 9, 1922.

Editor Brainerd Dispatch,
Brainerd, Minnesota.

Dear Sir:

I thought possibly the following clipping from the Livingston, Montana Enterprise of October 3rd, 1922 might be interesting, especially to those concerned:

"I am more than satisfied with the situation as I have seen it first hand," said Mr. Curry last night. We are handling the big crop movement in satisfactory manner and can continue to do so. The Northern Pacific is standing firmly behind President Donnelly's repeatedly reiterated statement that there will be no settlement with the shopcrafts as an organization and when I return to St. Paul I shall be able to render a report that I found conditions satisfactory even beyond my expectations. For example in the big South Tacoma Shops in a period of two days last week 76 men on strike applied for positions. I have spent several days in Seattle, Tacoma and South Tacoma, one of our largest locomotive and car shop plants being located at the latter point. This shop has been located there for an extended period and has always been manned by a very efficient class of employees who apparently realize and appreciate the treatment accorded them by the railway management. In consequence it now develops that many of these employees comprising all classes of mechanics who were involved in the strike of shop crafts have made application for their former positions and are being re-employed and reassigned to them where vacant; in fact the number of those seeking return to service daily is considerably greater than the number re-assigned. Former employees of all classes in large numbers are also returning to service at Como shops, St. Paul, Minneapolis, and Seattle, also in goodly number at many other points where vacancies still exist, some points now being fully manned."

In this connection I wish to state that information received from the St. Paul office is to the effect that no meetings with the shop crafts have been held nor is any in contemplation. Further that there is no thought of settlement of any kind.

Thanking you for space, I am,
Yours truly,
J. P. ANDERSON,
Shop Superintendent.

tory but everything else was lost.

Still apparently bereft of his temper, Bush lobbed a lazy throw up to the plate and King killed it but the ball fell foul near the left field bleachers. He swung easier next time and dropped a Texas leaguer back of short, scoring Young.

Yanks Show Life

For a time Sunday afternoon it seemed the Yankees had awakened from the spell of dumbness in which they tossed away every opportunity to win that came to them Saturday. They never appeared so much awake as did the bright and snappy Giants who like the addicts of auto suggestion seemed day by day to grow better and better, but with Bush pitching as well as he did for two-thirds of the distance a little slowness now and then did not matter much at the time.

Poor Base Running

The Yankees simply could not run the bases well. Their experiences on Saturday left them sadder but apparently no wiser in that branch of their business. This, at least, was the impression they gave in the fifth inning when after making one run, they tossed away the hope of another when Scott was boxed on the third base line after Bush had singled.

The single by Bush was stopped in centerfield and Ward scored on it. Scott, who had singled just before Bush went to third safely. Huggins was coaching there. Some thought the Yanks had learned a lesson Saturday when McGraw's outfielders twice returned hits so speedily that runners were tagged between bases. Sunday was another day with Scott, however. He over-ran the bag and was caught.

Facing the fast breaking curves of Nehf, the Yanks as had been their custom through all the series, plugged for one run at a time, while the Giants stuck to their worthwhile habit of letting the hits fall where they might in the hope of rushing several runners over the plate. The Yankees were held to five hits by Nehf.

First Run of Game

A single by Dugan, a sacrifice by Ruth and Pipp's single gave Bush one run to start with in the first inning. The Giants took the lead in the second, getting two runs on Meusel's single, Young's walk, Kelly's sacrifice and a one-bagger by Cunningham. The Yanks tied the count at two-all in the fifth. Ward walked and was sent around the circuit by singles hit by Scott and Bush. Again in the seventh the Yankees forged ahead.

Meusel scratched a hit that Groh fumbled. He was sacrificed to second by Schang and given a trip to third on a wild pitch. Scott's sacrifice fly sent him home.

There were occasions for Babe Ruth to rise from his slump and regain heroic stature, but he could not hit the curves that Nehf hurled so carefully. After his sacrifice in the first inning his bat produced nothing but a strike out and two bounders to Kelly.

Pipp's play to Bancroft's hopper in the eighth was but one of the several bright bits of fielding in the final game. It seemed a piece of retribution, for Groh had robbed Pipp of a hit in the sixth. The most valuable catch of the game was made by Ward. He leaped and stopped a hard line drive that came off Bancroft's bat in the second inning when the Giants had men on every base flushed by the rally that had already sent two of their comrades over the rubber.

Bancroft also got revenge. When the Yankees came to bat for a last chance rally in the ninth, he crushed their hopes by running far beyond the diamond to catch Meusel's sky-scraping fly. Young took care of the next two batters, and another world series was ready for embalming in the record books.

BALTIMORE DOWNS ST. PAUL BY HITTING HARD IN PINCHES

Baltimore, Oct. 9.—After a game uphill fight in which they overcame a five-run lead which St. Paul of the American association piled up in the third inning, the Baltimore club of the international league won the third game of the little world series here Sunday, 13 to 10. The contest was witnessed by a capacity crowd, there being 14,033 paid admissions. Thousands were turned away.

Tom Sheehan of the Saints and Jack Bentley of the Orioles, considered the pitching aces of the rival teams, started on the mound, and both were driven to the showers.

Bentley was touched for six hits in the third, including home runs out of the park by Golvin and Dessen. In the next inning they continued pounding the ball at the expense of Rogers, who had relieved Sheehan in the third. A homer by Bishop of the Orioles in the fourth Batteries—Sheehan, Rogers, Mer-

DODGE BROTHERS BUSINESS SEDAN

With this car, Dodge Brothers have literally created a new type of sedan.

They have combined open car ruggedness with closed car protection and smartness.

They have demonstrated, once for all, that a sedan can be as practical and almost as inexpensive as an open touring car.

The body is built of hand-welded steel because steel is sturdy, and will take a permanent, oven-baked finish, eliminating forever the cost of repainting.

The seats are upholstered in attractive, genuine Spanish blue leather, because leather will wash and wear.

To further enlarge the car's usefulness, the rear seat, back and side cushions, seat frame and foot rest are quickly removable, giving sixty-four cubic feet of flat loading space in the rear compartment. The manifold uses made possible by this unique feature are readily imagined.

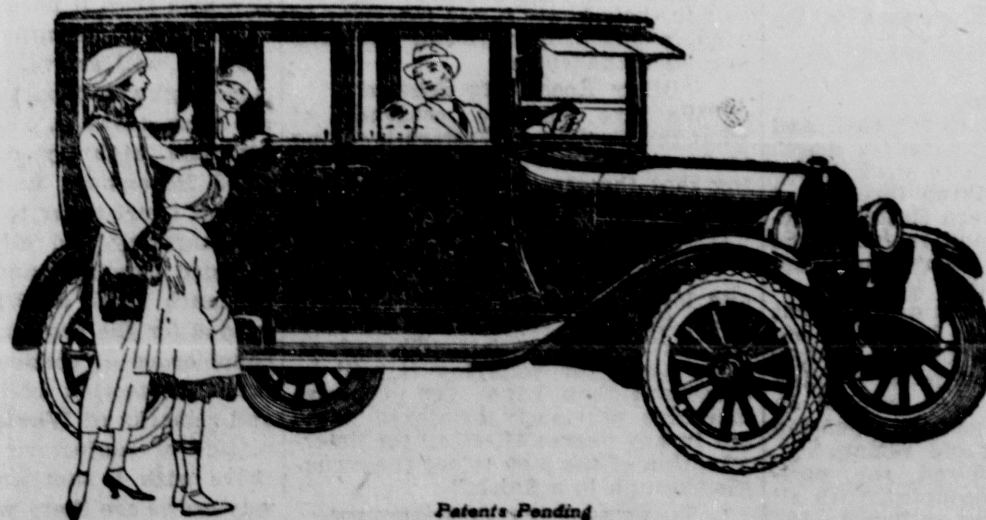

The top and rear quarters are of non-rumble, fabric construction, conforming with the present attractive vogue. From cord tires to curtain cords, the fittings, inside and out, are distinctive and complete.

In fact, every detail of the car emphasizes its striking adaptability to business as well as social use.

The price is $1340 delivered

FULL OF THRILLS, START TO FINISH

Third Annual Convention of League of Women Voters at St. Paul Attended by Brainerd Women

BUSINESS SESSION WAS LIVELY
Discussion of Political Issues by Gubernatorial and Senatorial Candidates

The third annual convention of the League of Women Voters, held in St. Paul Oct. 5th, 6th and 7th, was filled with interest and thrills from start to finish.

The business sessions were enlivened by pointed questions and instructive discussions, while the speakers all had something of real educational value to contribute.

The discussion of political issues by the gubernatorial and senatorial candidates, the first evening, was not turned into vaudeville by the hecklers in the audience, as some of the city papers implied, but the speakers didn't have everything their own way. J. Adam Bede, who was Senator Kellogg's representative on this program, likes nothing better than to have questions fired at him by the audience, and he would have had his fill, had not the policy of the League interfered. Whatever privileges are granted one speaker must be granted to all. So the presiding officer announced that Mr. Bede would be given five minutes to answer questions provided the audience was willing to stay while the three other speakers consumed a like amount of time. As it was almost eleven o'clock, the audience voted to adjourn.

The most important business of the League, at this convention, was ratifying the recommendations of its Executive Council regarding the one piece of legislation to be sponsored by the League at the coming legislative session, viz., the educational bill.

The provisions of this bill were all ratified, but number six was warmly debated. All agreed that the office of county superintendent should be divorced from politics, but there was a division of opinion as to method. The recommendations were as follows:

- 1.—A minimum school term of not less than eight months.
  - 2.—Strengthening the compulsory attendance in the State Department of Education.
  - 3.—Provision for part-time continuation schools.
  - 4.—An effective program of physical education encouraged by state aid.
  - 5.—Increased provision for teacher helpers in rural districts.
  - 6.—A county board of education to be elected by the county, with power to appoint qualified superintendents and county truant officers.
- One of the ablest speakers on the convention program was an assistant attorney general of the United States—Mrs. Mable Walker Willebrandt. She gave an informal talk at the reception tendered to the delegates after the Friday afternoon business session at the home of Mrs. C. P. Noyes. Being asked to tell something about her job, she explained that the attorney general was allowed seven assistants, and she was one of those. Her jurisdiction included taxes, insurance, and the enforcement of the eighteenth amendment. She said the average morning mail that came to the office consisted of one hundred and fifty letters. Clerks opened these letters and classified them and sent to her desk those bearing on the matters under her jurisdiction. It was her duty to read these and make recommendations, or, if information was asked to see that a clerk secured such information and despatched it to the writer.

In her evening lecture, Mrs. Willebrandt made a plea for greater local responsibility for law enforcement. She said that the great body of our law had emanated from the people and represented the crystallized conscience of the small community. If the community relinquishes its responsibility for the enforcement of law, our government will inevitably become a bureaucracy. She also dwelt upon the fact that law's delays bred disrespect for law but there was no hope for speedy justice so long as the federal calendar is crammed with cases that should be on municipal or county dockets.

Unquestionably, the most brilliant orator of the convention was Mrs. Max Mayer, of Des Moines, Iowa. She is the state chairman of the committee on citizenship. Her opening sentence was: "I am not nearly so much concerned about the activity of Bolsheviks in this country, as I am about the inactivity of its enfranchised citizens." This gave the key to her lecture, which was a plea for the intelligent and conscientious performance of the duties of citizenship.

Mrs. Mayer made such an impression upon the St. Cloud delegates that they engaged her to lecture in St. Cloud on the Monday before election. The Brainerd delegates would like to have done likewise, but did not feel sure that they could furnish either the funds or the audience. Mrs. Mayer is a handsome woman of commanding presence and a strong personality, besides being a rapid and impressive speaker.

A league mass meeting will probably be called in the near future to listen to the reports of delegates and decide upon the feasibility of bringing Mrs. Mayer to Brainerd. At this meeting, plans will also be made to begin a "get out the vote" campaign. The time and place of this meeting will be announced soon. Watch the papers for such an announcement.

The Brainerd delegates attending this convention were: Mrs. E. O. Webb, Mrs. A. C. Weber, Mrs. Rose Parker and Mrs. Wilbur Cobb.

Methodist Church School Notes

The spirit with which the school is entering upon the work of the year is most gratifying. A better spirit has been shown than has been evident for several years.

Next Sunday will be observed as Rally Day. The school will be assembled at the close of the study period for a short program.

The Sunday school board will hold a very important meeting on Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the parlors of the church. The election of officers will take place and the years program will be discussed.

Miss Pauline Green, of the public school teaching force has shown a most commendable spirit in offering her experience as a teacher for the benefit of the school. Miss Green will teach a class of senior boys.

The beginners teacher had told the story of Pharaoh's destroying the Israelite babies. It much moved little Paul and he exclaimed: When I get to be king I'll be a good king and I will not kill the babies.

The young women of the Young Peoples department were very happy to have O. C. Skaug back as a teacher. There is a contest on in this department between the young women and young men and the interest is good.

The Intermediate department will precede the program at the assembling of the school on the 29th. Parents are invited to attend these programs.

The Junior department is making an enviable record. Of all the juniors there are but few who have not a passing grade in their book work while ten have a grade of 100%. The second year girls, the second year boys and the third year girls have perfect records in work for this month. Parents can greatly assist by seeing that this work is done. The attendance yesterday was excellent.

The school rejoices that Rev. E. A. Cooke was returned as pastor for another year.

The lesson had been about the good Samaritan. Little Beverly went home and explained how the teacher had told about the good American.

Little Mildred Hansen delighted the Young Peoples department with a solo Sunday.

T. E. Nitterauer is conserving Sunday school periodicals by using the postoffice method of distribution. Each family thus gets a paper.

THE NEW FILLING STATION

THERE are times when personal advantage suggests the use of certain locations for purposes that are not beneficial to the city at large; and there are things that are of special value to the city as a whole that do not invite the enterprise of individuals. Therefore, when a business man decides to build a building that will seriously menace the district in which it is built, it is to be expected that citizens will unite in seeking to prevent the erection of such a building. But if in proposing the erection of a building for personal advantage, which the business man hopes will accrue from such a project, he has thought of the interests of the city as well as his own, and has not seen that his proposed building will work any harm to the community, there is every reason to encourage such enterprise.

However, there are cases where the city may be made to suffer by the erection of buildings which are clearly out of place in the location proposed. In such cases the city council is well advised in refusing a permit to build.

Brainerd is confronted with a situation at this time, wherein those who take the opposite sides claim that a filling station erected at the corner of Sixth and Laurel, in the center of the business district of the city, and on a much traveled street, either will or will not have a bad effect on what are the best interests of Brainerd. With a proper respect for the position taken by those who oppose its erection, it nevertheless seems that there are no valid grounds for refusing the permit requested. This corner has been sadly neglected for many years, during which time it has been one of the most unpleasing prospects of what is otherwise a fine part of Brainerd. The proposed building will remedy this defect. The building is to be of good materials, of pleasing design, and so illuminated as to brighten up the part of the city where it stands.

Of course it is true that a filling station calls for the movement in and out of automobiles. It is also true that this is already a busy corner. But filling stations have been erected on much busier corners in other cities, and as Brainerd grows it is almost certain that the time will come when filling stations already erected will be on streets just as busy then as Sixth and Laurel streets are at this time.

As to the site being reserved for a more imposing structure. It has been neglected for many years and there are no indications that either now or in the immediate future anyone intends to utilize it in this way. In planning an oil station for the corner the proponent of the plan has suggested a real improvement to that corner to be made at once.

It may be said that in the course of a few years, with the development of the city, there would be a demand for the site for the purpose of building thereon a building of two or three stories that would be an imposing addition to the buildings of Brainerd. Such a prediction undoubtedly is well founded, but there is no reason in it for allowing the corner to remain as it is, and has been for many years, while awaiting this development. The filling station will be built at once, and when the future has made a strong call for the ground, we may see in Brainerd, what is continually happening in other cities, a small building torn down to make a place for a larger and more modern structure. But to hold ground idle while awaiting such developments would tend to hindering the developments hoped for. If this site were in demand for other and better purposes, its use for the purpose proposed might be opposed with good reason, but the use to which it is to be put, if this proposal is accepted, will result in a real improvement over the conditions that at present obtain.

BRAINERD MUST NOT FAIL

LESS than two weeks lie between this date and the day when the delegates from all parts of Minnesota will be assembling in this city to attend the sessions of the 64th annual convention of the Minnesota Sunday School Association. As yet little has been done to guarantee that Brainerd will meet the test of providing hospitality for the 500 to 1,000 Sunday School workers who are coming to our city. The officers of the association have expended around $1,500 in preparation for this convention, and unless Brainerd goes to work with a will, and assumes in full the obligation which was self-imposed by issuing an invitation to the association to meet in this city in 1922, the work of the organization will suffer a serious setback.

The officers of the association have gone forward in making their plans, confidently believing that Brainerd would do what she promised, and despite the difficulties that confront the people of the city as a result of the strike of the shopcrafts; the pastors, and the general committee for putting the convention across, feel confident that the people will prove their loyalty to the work of the association, faith in their city, and assurance of its future, by uniting in this task.

If Brainerd fails to supply the money required to make the convention a success, and does not provide such hospitality as will favorably impress the assembled delegates, the announcement will be carried to every part of the state that Brainerd is an inhospitable town and that her citizens are not alive to the obligations which are assumed when a convention is invited by the people of a Minnesota city.

But Brainerd will not fail. Registrations will be sold to cover the $800 needed for the convention expenses; homes will be opened to the visitors; meals will be provided at a reasonable charge by the ladies of the churches; a great inspirational program will stimulate the interest of our people in religious education; and the delegates will go back to their homes, as they did after convening in Brainerd several years ago, with the news that Brainerd knows how to entertain her visitors so that they wish to return.

CROW WING COUNTY AT THE DAIRY SHOW

Over 100 Farmers Have Signified Their Intention to Attend Show if Transformation is Provided

VOLUNTEERS FURNISH CARS

Roll of Car Owners With Number of Passengers They Can Carry, Many More are Needed

The Crow Wing county delegation, which is going to the National Dairy show now in progress at the state fair grounds, is receiving more than its share of favorable attention. Through the efforts of County Highway Engineer Walter M. Murphy, the county highway, engineer of Morrison county has very kindly consented to open the new paving for eight miles out of Little Falls, for the use of the delegates going from Crow Wing county.

This strip of paving is not as yet open to the public, and the action of the Morrison county official is very much appreciated. Through his kindness, a great deal of detouring, bad roads, and dust will be avoided, and the tourists will be able to make better time with much greater comfort.

P. M. Zakariassen, chairman of the special committee for securing automobiles, is right on the job working tooth and toenail in arranging the tour of those driving to the dairy show, the business men of Brainerd taking their former friends by automobile. Mr. Zakariassen has arranged with the chief of police to have the west side of 6th street in the block from Front to Laurel, cleared on Thursday morning for the use of the cars that are going to the show.

Farmers desiring accommodations on this auto trip, will gather early Thursday morning at the Chamber of Commerce, where they will be met by the business men with cars, and the delegation will leave promptly from in front of the Iron Exchange building at 8 o'clock.

Over one hundred farmers have signified to the committee their desire to attend the show, provided transportation can be had for them. Seventeen cars have been promised, but many more are needed, and it is hoped that Brainerd people will come to the rescue with their cars and carry as many passengers as possible.

These cars, with the number that each can carry, have already been signed up: W. E. Brockway, 4; John Bye, 3; D. H. Fullerton, 4; A. M. Opsahl, 4; W. F. Wieland, 4; Ernest Butler, 1; W. E. Kundert, 4; The Sherlund Co., 4; Woodhead Motor Co., two cars, 8; Lively Auto Co., 4; W. E. Kundert, 4; T. H. Schafer, 3; A. S. Peterson, (Commercial State Bank) 3; P. M. Zakariassen, 3; T. E. Brusegaard, 3; S. F. Adair, 2; El Boppel, 3; and the county agent 2 or 3. This provides for about fifty or sixty farmer passengers, but many additional automobiles will be necessary, and the car owners of the city are urged to get in touch with either Mr. Zakariassen or the county agent and list their cars with the number of passengers that they can carry, at the very earliest moment.

C. E. Minns, secretary of the Minneapolis welcoming committee, has written the local committee as follows:

"We are much pleased to learn that Crow Wing county is sending a delegation to the dairy show. Arrangements are being made to meet your delegation at the intersection of the Jefferson highway and the Victory Memorial Drive, which is in the city limits of Minneapolis, at between 1:30 and 2:00 p. m. on Thursday, October 12th.

"Signs for the windshields of your automobiles are being sent you by mail today.

"In regard to hotel reservation, we have placed reservations in your name at the Vendome hotel for twenty-five rooms. While the cities will be able to house all of those who are coming to the dairy show, it is very necessary to double up so that at least two will occupy a room. If this is not satisfactory, will you kindly advise us so that we can make additional reservations?

"Enclosed you will find a Visitor's Guide to Minneapolis. One copy of this guide will be placed in the hands of each of your party upon arrival.

"We hope that you will have a most successful and pleasant trip and that I will have the opportunity to see you while you are here. I remain,

It is the plan of the Brainerd committee to leave this city at 8 a. m. sharp on Thursday, October 12th, arriving in Minneapolis about 1:00 p.

m. The return trip will be made on Friday the 13th, leaving Minneapolis late in the afternoon, and arriving in Brainerd in the evening.

Scrappy Crosby-Ironton Football Team Defeats Locals on Their Home Grounds 21 to 13

BRAINERD'S LINE GAVE WAY

Johnny Stark Was Crosby's Shining Star, Fogelstrom of Brainerd in Spectacular Touchdown (By W. G.)

Submitting to a game defeat the high school football squad were taken into camp last Saturday with a 21-13 score, beaten by the scrappy Crosby-Ironton eleven. Failure of Brainerd's line to hold against the incessant attacks of the range machine is the local's only alibi.

Johnny Stark was Crosby's shining star, cited for his speed and accuracy in placing his effective plays.

Fogelstrom, Brainerd's fleet quarterback delivered the intensive thrill of the game by taking the ball from the kickoff and carrying it the length of the field, through the entire Crosby outfit, for a touchdown. Heiken made sweeping end runs that won praise from his opponents.

The game was run off in an exceptionally clean manner, Crosby treating her visitors with every courtesy. It is hoped that the locals will remember this on the return tilt.

Little Falls plays at the Koorling field this Friday, promising a frisky battle. Everyone's support is solicited.

CONCORDIA SOCIETY

Young People to Meet in Bethlehem Lutheran Church This Evening, Presenting Program

The Concordia Young People's society of the Bethlehem Lutheran church meets this evening at 8 o'clock.

The following program will be rendered.

Violin solo—Miss Jennie McCarthy.

A Playlet—Lorraine Enemark, Emogene Bolt and Harriet Halvorson.

Vocal Solo—Mrs. O. B. Johnson. Talk by Rev. Bolstad.

Piano duet—Myrtle Bredenberg and Alice Johnson.

Macalester 6, St. John 0 Collegeville, Oct. 9—Three minutes to play, and the score 0 to 0. An intercepted pass, a series of line plunges, finally on the fourth a touchdown. Score Macalester 6, St. John 0.

St. John played much better than in the first game last week. The defensive play of the collegeville team was strong most of the way, while its aerial attack kept the Mac eleven worried. Leutner, 125 pound half, was the big star for the home team. His work in returning punts alone marked him a star, but he also intercepted and caught passes well, and his defensive work was excellent. McNally played another strong game, while the defensive play of Captain Koopp at tackle and "Jerry" Gronick stood out as particularly strong.

COUNTY BOARD LETS 4 HIGHWAY PROJECTS

P. W. Roark Awarded Graveling of Six and a Half Miles on 13th St. Road, North End

C. PETERSON GETS CLEARWATER

Merrifield Road Job to J. B. Schmidt and Breezy Point Road Completion to John Humphrey

The county fathers held a very busy session in their rooms at the court house Saturday, the meeting running well into the third watch of the morning before it was adjourned.

A great deal of the time was taken up with the letting of bids on county highway work, four different projects being up before the board for letting.

13th Street Road
P. W. Roark was awarded the graveling of 6½ miles of the new 13th street road at its north end, thus completing this highway from Brainerd to the Morrison county line. Mr. Roark's bid was $5,962.62. He is to start on this work December 1st, and have it completed by March 15th.

When completed, this road will be one of the best in the secondary systems of the state projects.

Clearwater Road
The grading, clearing and building of the Clearwater road was awarded to Carl Peterson of Deerwood for $2,651.46. This highway, lying west of Clearwater lake, connects the Nakay-Sebe road with the Deerwood road, doing away with a bad sinking bridge and some boggy highway of the old road system. It is to be commenced at once and finished as quickly as weather will permit.

Merrifield Road
The clearing, grading and building of 1,800 feet of the extension of the Merrifield road to connect with the Cross Lake road north of the Mission township line, was let to J. B. Schmidt of Horseshoe lake for $785.41. This piece of road was fostered by the Chamber of Commerce, and much credit is due them in boosting the project.

Breezy Point Road
The completion of 3½ miles of the Breezy Point road from Pequot, was awarded to John Humphrey of Deerwood, his bid being $13,271.74. This new highway will avoid many of the bad hills, dangerous curves and a bad bridge of the old road, and will be much appreciated by travelers in its vicinity.

It might be interesting to state that this contract went at 20c per cubic yard, which compared with war prices of 70 and 80c per cubic yard, is quite a saving. No work in the county at the present time is costing over 25c, thus giving the county the best of highways at the least cost.

Monolithic Culverts
The monolithic culverts on the Breezy Point road, were not put up for letting at this meeting, it being decided that since there was only one bidder for the work, it would be better to offer the bids again in the hopes of getting more bidders.

The metal culverts for this road were awarded to the Lyle Culvert Co., and to the Berger Manufacturing Co., both of Minneapolis. The bids of these two firms were the same, and it was the sense of the board that the contract be divided equally between them.

REPUBLICANS IN RANGE CAMPAIGN

Chairman D. D. Schrader Announces Array of Speakers at Ironton this Afternoon, Crosby in Evening

SPEAKER W. I. NOLAN THERE

Congressman Harold Knutson and Mrs. Theodore Whitmore Are Also of the Program

Republicans are turning loose their guns on the Cuyuna range today. Chairman D. D. Schrader of this district, announces an afternoon meeting for this afternoon at Ironton, and a big, straight-from-the-shoulder rally in Crosby this evening beginning promptly at 8 o'clock.

W. I. Nolan, speaker of the house in the state legislature, Hon. Harold Knutson, representative from this district, and Mrs. Theodore Whitmore, one of the most prominent club women in this state, are on the program.

The Crosby band will play before the meeting and will be in evidence during the session.

It is requested that as many as possible from Brainerd attend this evening. Being the first campaign work done on the range, it is hoped that many from this city will go over and help put it across in good style.

FANNING WITH ARRELL

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Oct. 9.—Middlebury College never has and may never figure among the great ones of big football. If the time ever comes, however, that gameness and courage count in the fall ranking, Middlebury will be right up there among them.

Just a little college with a student enrollment of 447, Middlebury has a team that is going to play Harvard, Williams, Dartmouth and Penn State in the first four games of the season.

That schedule has the appearance of seeking, instead of dodging, the bumpy spots.

John McGraw will have $75,000 worth of first baseman next spring when Jimmy O'Connell reports from the San Francisco club. From reports the Giants may have also $75,000 worth of bench material in the same player.

O'Connell is trying for an outfield job on the club, but he can't go back for a fly and he can't throw, according to a reliable critic who has watched O'Connell play for a long time. He is also said to be a sort of languid person on the field while McGraw feasts and lives on pep.

France is making constructive moves to get a championship team in the next Olympic games at Paris in 1924. Georges Carpentier has accepted the post of coaching and training the boxing team that France will put into the ring and if he can teach them one small fraction of what he knows, the French ringsters will be hard to beat.

Benny Leonard has announced that he is going into the clothing and haberdashery business to prepare himself against the time when he must retire from the ring.

Eddie Cantor, the Winter Garden comedian, rises to remark that Benneh is going to take their measure in the future with a tape instead of the gloved dukes.

William Muldoon, chairman of the New York Boxing Commission, can be accused of most anything but a lack of frankness. When howls were made that Joe Lynch worked under wraps when he lost a decision to Kid Wolfe here recently, the chairman of the commission said:

"I am convinced that Lynch is greatly overrated. He does not measure up to the standard which qualifies a boxer as a participant in a star bout at Madison Square Garden. Frank Jerome or Terry Martin could have knocked him out that night."

Muldoon, however, should not pass judgment in a manner that will injure the drawing ability of a boxer on the showing that he makes in one night. Lynch is known as a spotty fighter—extremely great at one time and terribly poor at another.

After the last Dempsey-Brennan fight it could have been said and was said that Dempsey was an overrated champion, but it wouldn't have meant a thing after early July last year.

TWO BOYS HELD AS MATERIAL WITNESSES

NEW ANGLE DEVELOPS IN MINISTER-CHOIR LEADER MURDER

(By United Press.)

New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 9.—Clifford Hayes, 19, and Raymond Schneider, 21, were detained by county authorities today as material witnesses in connection with the murder of the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. James Mills, choir leader.

The young men were questioned all night. Following this it was reported that Schneider had accused Hayes of shooting Hall and Mrs. Mills.

Prosecutor A. M. Beekman refused to confirm or deny this report. Prosecutor Strickler told the United Press that the boys were held and that he would issue a statement during the morning giving full details.

New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 9.—Crouching in terror of a crowd that surged about the court house where Clifford Hayes, youthful ex-sailor was taken to Somerville jail this afternoon to be formally charged with the murder of Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. James Mills.

Hayes' arrest was a surprise in the sensational murder case. It followed Governor Edwards' ultimatum that the slayer of the couple must be found. Hayes and his companion named Raymond Schneider, were grilled all night and upon the latter's confession that Hayes shot Dr. Hall and Mrs. Mills by mistake, the man was placed under arrest.

A story of the killing in which Schneider said Hayes tracked Dr. Hall and the pretty choir leader through Phillips' farm and that Hayes killed them believing Mrs. Mills to be his unfaithful sweetheart, is understood to have been told the authorities.

Formal Charge Made

New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 9.—Clifford Hayes, 19, will be charged with the murder of Rev. Edward Hall, millionaire pastor, and Mrs. James Mills, his choir leader, according to an official statement issued at noon today by Prosecutors Beekman and Strickler.

The statement said Raymond Schneider, 22, will be held as a material witness, and the process against Hayes will be issued in Somerset county, wherein the bodies were found, this afternoon.

Prior to the prosecutors' statement, Schneider was reported to have signed a statement charging that Hayes shot Mrs. Mills and Hall by a mistake, thinking the woman was Pearl Bahmer, daughter of a saloon keeper, with whom Hayes was in love.

"From information in possession of the prosecutor's office, obtained from Raymond Schneider and other witnesses, we feel obliged to prefer a charge of murder against one Clifford Hayes," said Beekman.

"Schneider will be held as a material witness awaiting further developments. A process will be issued today in Somerset county where the crime was committed. Both men will be detained in the Somerset county jail."

The prosecutor refused to say whether they had eliminated the Mills and Hall families from the case.

"We cannot eliminate anyone yet," Prosecutor Beekman said. When questioned as to what he thought had become of Hall's gun, knife and watch, he replied, "Do not ask us questions which will let those under arrest know what information we have." He refused to comment on Schneider's confession, declaring "we cannot discuss that here." No further arrests are contemplated now, he added.

AMUSEMENTS

"Come On Over" at Lyceum Tonight

Rupert Hughes has hit the bullseye of fun again with his new Goldwyn photocomedy, "Come On Over," which will be shown at the Lyceum theatre for two days, beginning tonight. It is a companion piece, for its comedy, to his "Scratch My Back," and its characters are as human and lovable as those in his other masterpiece, "The Old Nest." Its comedy is wholesome and persuasive and infectious and through its course flows a vein of Irish wit that only Mr. Hughes has been able to bring to the screen in all its delightfulness.

Its story is simple, but has the freshness and breeziness of a sunrise over one of Ireland's greenest hills. The story starts in Ireland but soon jumps to New York and deals with the romance of Shane, who leaves his sweetheart, Moyna, behind when he seeks his fortune in the new world. When they meet in New York after three years, their love affair runs anything but smoothly until a contest of old Irish dances is staged. The dance music gets into their blood, and their feet lead them together in the dance and, once in each other's arms, everything is straightened out.

Thos. Meighan in "Cappy Ricks"

Thomas Meighan will be seen in a Paramount picture, "Cappy Ricks," at the Lyceum theatre next Wednesday and Thursday. It is said to be one of the best photoplays in which he has been seen this season. Agnes Ayres heads the supporting cast and Tom Forman directed.

The Service Rendered by Efficiency in Gasoline Production

THE man who fills his tank at a Service Station, or feeds his tractor from a tank wagon, may not realize it but sheer efficiency on the part of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is to a large degree the reason why the gasoline is there when he wants it.

Oil News says: "During the winter 1921-1922 the majority of the refineries in the Mid-Continent field were idle. This was due largely to the fact that they could not refine and sell at a profit. They were in a way inefficient. Many could not operate. Others that might have operated could not get the crude. The large plants could and did finance themselves and sold some of their output as they made it at a profit."

Keen efficiency—in small, as well as in big things, has enabled the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to refine and sell petroleum products at a fair profit, under the most competitive of business conditions.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has 1600 competitors in the Middle West.

Standard Oil Company (Indiana) efficiency runs through every operation. It governs the appointment of executives. It selects oil men of long training and experience who know when and what type of crude to buy. It directs the style of machinery, the kind of stills to be used. It determines the various products to be refined from the crude so that there may be no waste of oil, effort, time or overhead.

This efficiency, and the confidence which the public places in it, enables the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to maintain its position as the leader in the industry. It enables the management to plan for the future with confidence, and to keep its refineries going during periods of low consumption that it may be in position to meet adequately the unusual demands during periods of greater consumption.

It is this efficiency which has spotted the country with bulk and service stations and caused more than 6600 motor tank wagons to traverse the streets and highways supplying the people everywhere with first quality petroleum products at prices which are fair.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) submits that such efficient management is the essential basis of the valuable service it renders.
